CELEBRATING 40 YEARS OF CONTINUED INNOVATION

Stumpjumper Classic frame, Tange Cro-Mo tubing, original Stumpjumper geometry

It's a big year for Specialized, as we introduce the groundbreaking Stumpjumper. The Stumpy, now immortalized in the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, DC, was the first mountain bike available in neighborhood bike shops. The initial shipment of 125 frames sold out in 6 days. Tom Hillard rides a Stumpjumper to its first recorded victory this year at the Punk Bike Enduro in Santa Rosa, CA. Many more follow.
